Redefine
the concept of progress —

“We are the first generation that can end poverty in the world and the last generation that can tackle climate change.”
